

Service management system

Term	Service management system
Abbreviation	SMS
Definition	Overall management system that controls and supports management of services within an organisation or federation Note: The SMS can be regarded as the entirety of interconnected policies, processes, procedures, roles, agreements, plans, related resources and other elements needed and used by a service provider to effectively manage the delivery of services to customers
Source	FitSM-0
Owner
Last updated	11 Dec 2020